The First Congregational Church of West Boylston is a strong, vibrant Christian church embracing the sacred through tradition and innovation. We are seeking a new Minister of Music to collaborate with our pastor and congregation on engaging worship, communal liturgy, and music that reaches our heart. If you would like to be a part of this journey and meet the following qualifications, we would love to consider you:

- Play traditional hymns with an eye toward experimenting with other styles of worship music;
- Have training and experience as a choral director, with a welcoming presence, and be able to make music accessible for all;
- Have a collaborative style of choosing worship music;
- Be a Christian faith-based music leader who supports our church's mission statement: Worship God, Follow Jesus, Serve Others; Love All.
- Be a trained organist;
- Be able to direct or oversee the direction of an existing handbell choir;
- Have a creative approach to church music, including varied programming;
- Be able to lead or oversee musical opportunities for children;
- Have strong verbal and written communication skills.

Other music opportunities for the successful candidate at the First Congregational Church include:

- Space to teach private students;
- A newly installed pipe organ;
- An affiliated nursery/after-school care facility which offers part-time music instruction for its children.

-P/T, 18-20 hours/week

-Salary range based on experience
